Meet our wills and estates team

Griffin Legal was established in 2009. With offices in Canberra and Melbourne the team has over 20 professionals dedicated to providing practical, reliable, quality legal services to business, government, national bodies, community organisations and sporting organisations.

Our wills and estates team offers a full range of estate planning services for individuals in a wide range of family and life circumstances. We have expertise in:

- Estate planning
- Family provision claims
- Powers of attorneys
- Succession planning for your business
- Superannuation binding death benefits notifications
- Testamentary trust wills
- Wills including codicils

We are highly experienced commercial lawyers with decades of experience in estate planning. Utilising this experience, we provide creative solutions through the delivery of strategic, considered, practical and candid legal advice assisting you in fulfilling intentions.

Our Litigation and Disputes team supports our Wills and estates team. We also have a Property and conveyancing practice lead by Peter Hoolihan that provides support as required.
